HR - Further Information

Please read the following to help prepare for your training

Eligibility

To be eligible for a Heavy Rigid Licence you need to have held a car licence for a minimum of 24 months consistently.

How a One-day Course works

Bring your licence on the day. You'll meet your trainer our office, complete an enrolment form and set off on your training. Towards the end of your training, you'll make your way to TMR attend your Practical Driving Test. Once your test is over, you can update your licence at TMR and then your trainer will take you back to your car. You will receive breaks during your training to ensure we are managing fatigue.

Not sure which package to buy?

You can book in for hourly training at $140 per hour. If you're not sure which package you'll need, you can book in for an hour training to get a better idea, our experienced trainers can then recommend a package to suit.

Heavy Vehicle Knowledge Test

The Heavy Vehicle Knowledge Test is a requirement to obtain an HR licence. You can do the theory test at any time, either before you start your training or after. You can practice this test on the TMR website or on the Shift site. You will need to go into a TMR Customer Service Centre to sit the test. It contains 10 multiple choice questions.

What you can drive with an HR licence

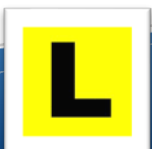

Drive a truck or bus (including a prime mover or a mobile crane) over 8.0 ton GVM with 3 or more axles or an articulated bus (a bus that can bend in the middle). Note: You may also tow a trailer with maximum weight of 9t GVM.

Medical Certificates

If you have a car licence with a medical condition, you'll need to get your medical certificate updated to cover an HR licence prior to starting your training. Make sure you always keep your medical certificate on you when driving. If you haven't updated your medical certificate, you are not able to drive the truck and forfeit any fees paid.

Cancellation Policy

Shift requires 24 hours' notice to cancel a lesson or 48 hours' notice to cancel a test otherwise the full fee will be payable. Any refunds will incur a $50 administration charge.
